Dear Dr. Burleigh:-

I postponed replying to your letter of May 15th as I had hopes that by this time I would have received a photo-copy of a biography covering Nicholas Selmsers (note spelling) from the New York State Libr_ary.

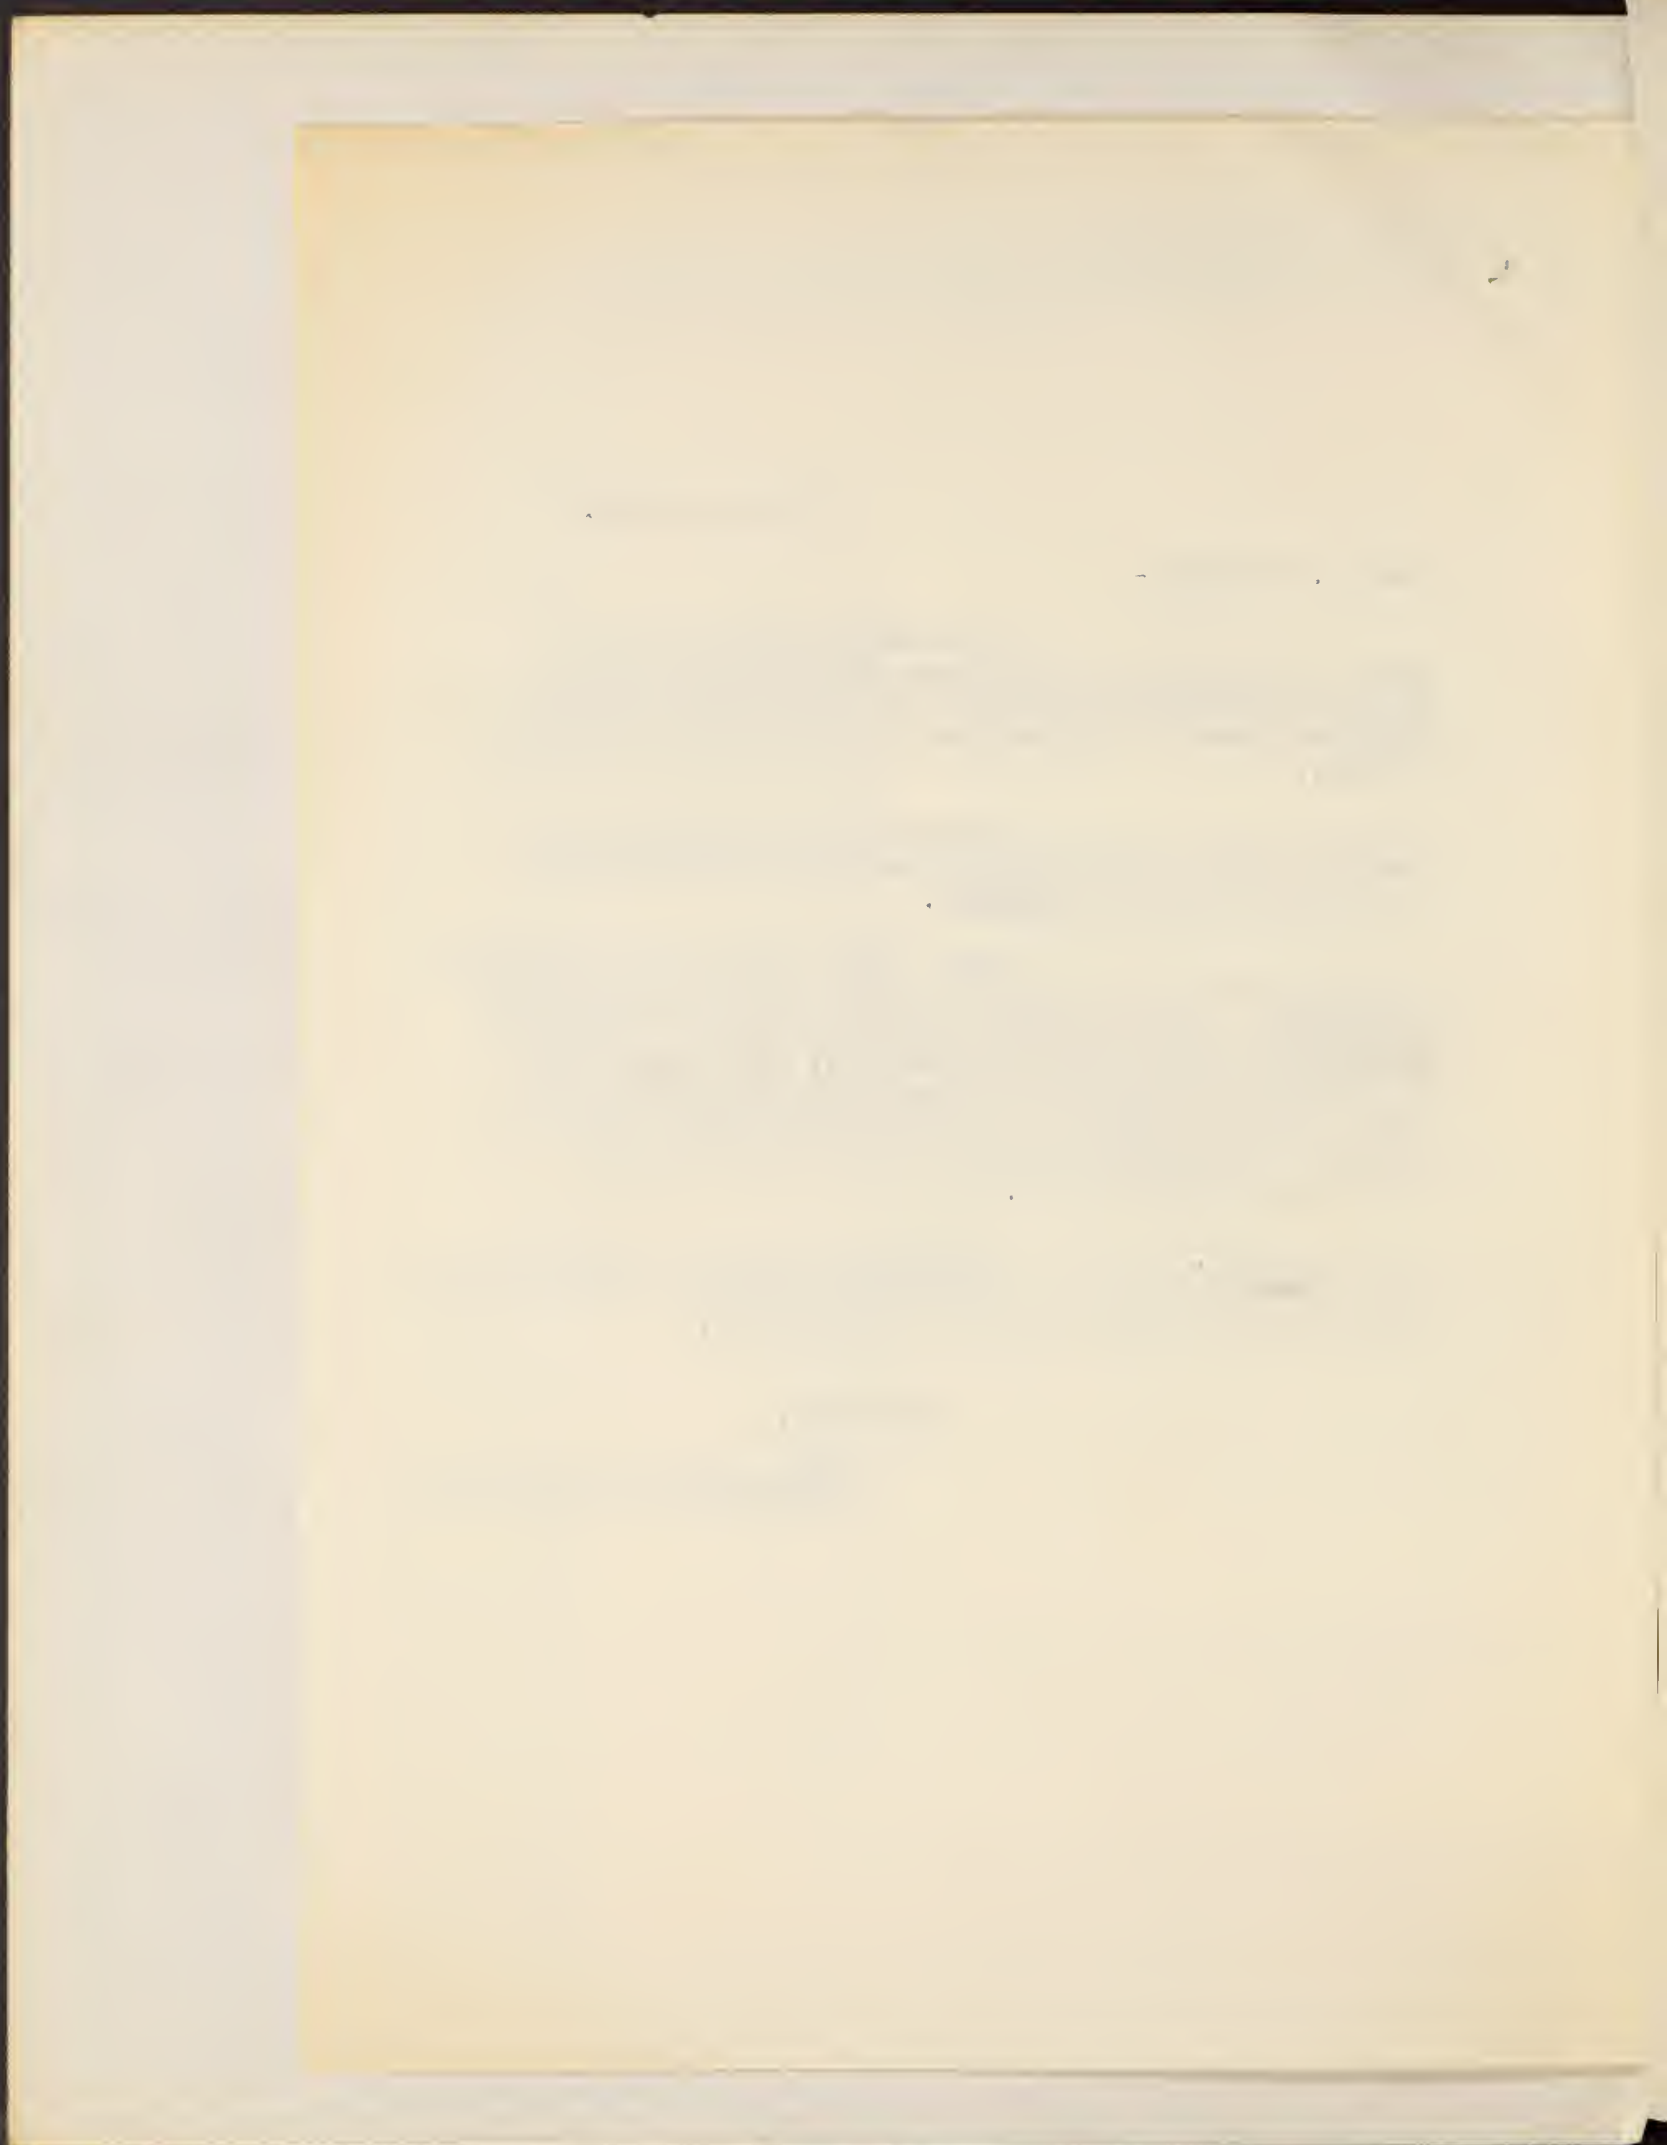

This has not yet arrived, but, however, I have just received a set of the 1904 Report of the Ontario Bureau of Archives.

These I have found most informative and noted therein the name of a mutual friend, namely Asa Richardson. He is noted as claim reference # 884 before the Loyalist commissioners at Montreal, 1789, Volume XXI. He was a native American and lived at Kingsboro; in 1780 joined Jessup's Regiment and served therein till the end of the war. The claim is detailed and if you wish the information I will copy it.

I thought you might be interested in the above, as soon as I have anything further on the Selmsers I shall let you know at once for your records.

Sincerely,

Richardson

Dear Mr. Richardson:

This will reply to your letter of 4th inst.

I have a very definite picture of your Richardson family, especially that part dealing with Asa, the Loyalist. It is based on a number of items. I shall enumerate them:

1. A History of the Town of Queensbury, Albany County, N. Y., states that Asa Richardson was Captain of Militia in Kingsbury Town~~y~~ in 1775. Captains of militia in those days was usually an elderly influential person, in many cases well over forty years. If so, he was born before 1739.
2. On Asa's arrival in Canada before 1780, he was awarded a pension of £3, which was increased to £5. This confirms his pre-revolutionary status.
3. A Return of Loyalist Families in Canada in the Fall of 1780 calls him "an old man." Subsequent lists refer to him as "distressed."
4. Asa is not listed in any Loyalist Regiment. The inference is that he was "too old" for service.
5. He died in 1789.
6. He is not listed in the Pensioners' Coy. Some of these men were above sixty years of age. I do not know why he is not listed, unless there was a definite disability or infirmity, or he WAS an old man.

Information gleaned here and there about the early settlement of Kingsbury Town indicates that these settlers, almost to a man, came from the western part of Connecticut, in the neighborhood of New Milford. They include, among others, Bradshaws, Brownsons, and Richardsons. Saml. Brownson, Sr., married Elizabeth, sister of James Bradshaw, also a loyalist of Fredericksburgh. They had a daughter, Tamar, born 2 Nov., 1749. She very likely wife of Asa Richardson and mother of the family which accompanied him to Canada. It was she who died in 1797.

All this makes me suspect that Asa was a widower when he married Tamar. She would be only 31 in 1780 when Asa was "an old man." Likewise, in 1775, when he was captain of militia, she was only 26. Furthermore, she was very unlikely wife of an Asa, Jr. A list of Asa's children in a list of the Fall of 1783 shows 3 sons aged between 6 and 12. At this rate the oldest could not have been born before 1771, and, therefore not old enough to be husband of Tamar, born in 1749.

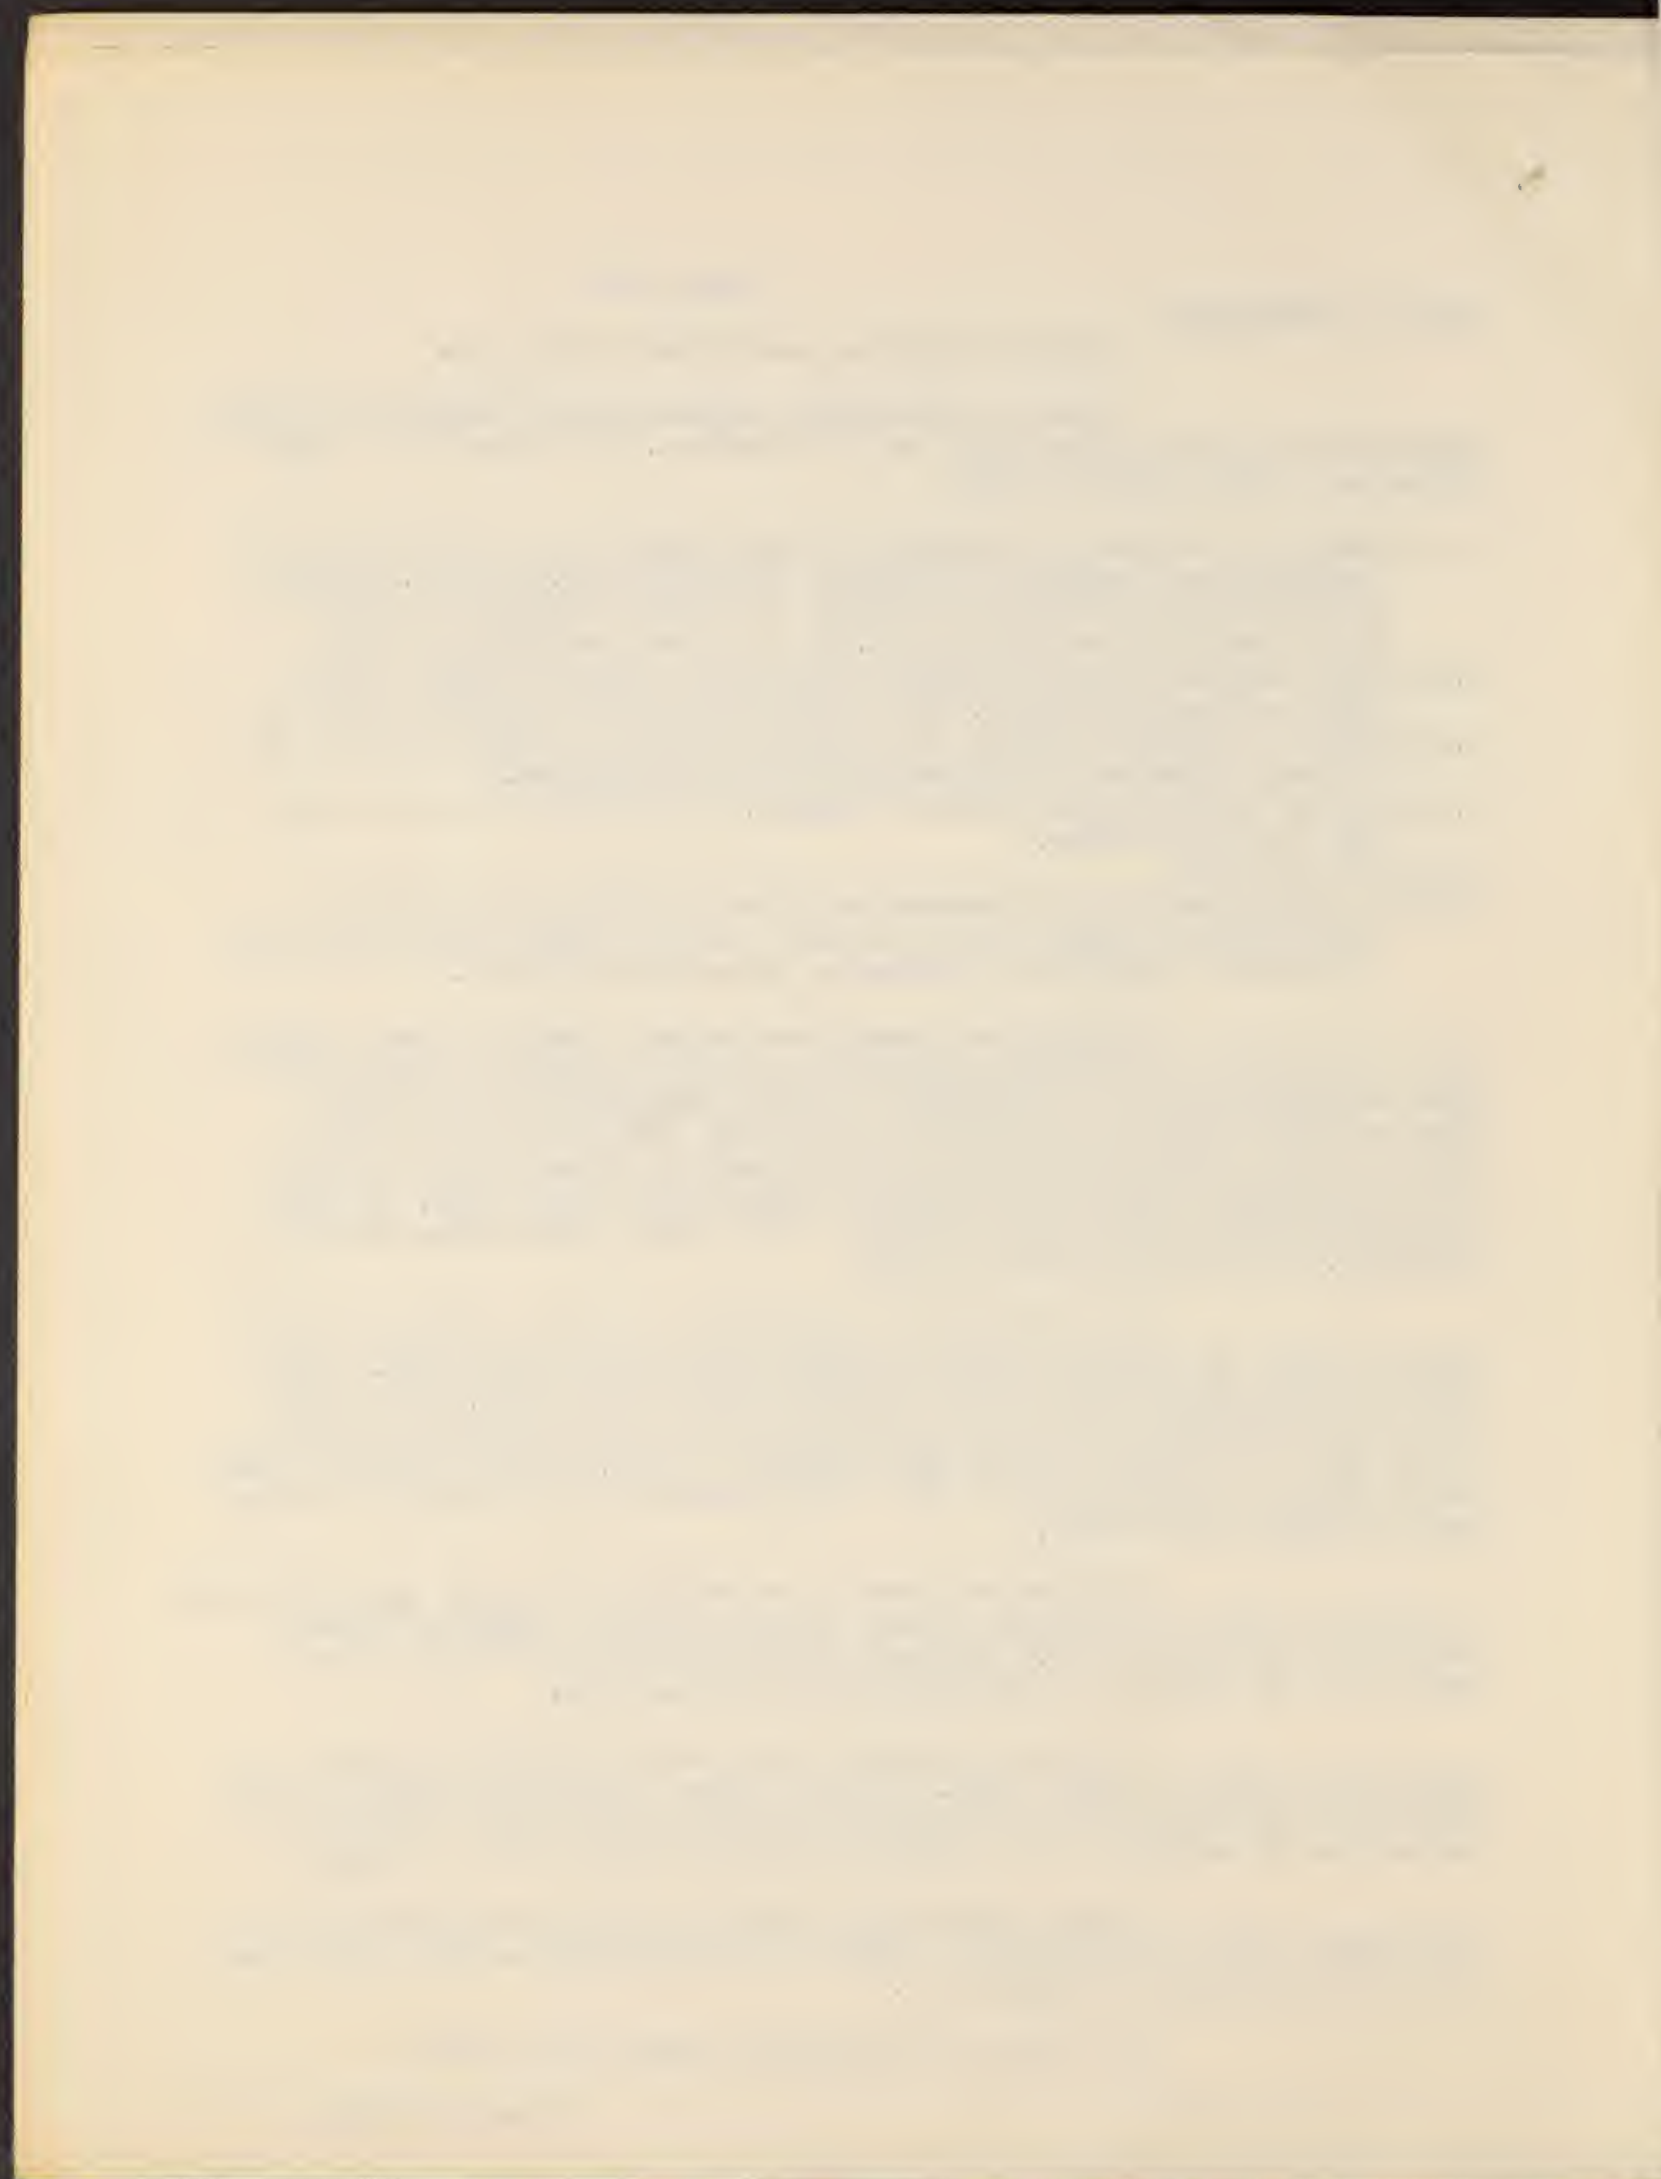

Furthermore, there is no evidence of an Asa, son of Asa, Sr. If there was one, he apparently did not marry, nor did he apply for land as son of Asa, Sr. The Asa, Sr., mentioned in your letter was an Asa, son of Thomas, and was baptized in Fredericksburgh 10 Feb., 1796.

I note your quandary about Tamar who died in May and applied for land in October, 1797. The only answer is that she applied for the land before she died, but it was not passed by the Council until October. If you can see the original in the Archives, you might find that I am right.

I can suggest that a review of the vital statistics of New Milford, Conn., might give the answer to the Richardsons. These can be seen in the State Library in Albany, N. Y.

If I can be of assistance, please let me know.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Doctor Burleigh:

Many thanks for your recent letter regarding my family ancestry. First, I am grateful for your interest and for the obvious time and effort which you expended for me. Second, from what I can gather, the Richardsons have shown singularly little interest in their family history. I can therefore understand why I might be the first of my family to contact you.

In the second paragraph of your letter you point out some deficiencies in my "Richardson" chart. Here are some comments:

1. I have been holding in abeyance the fact that Asa Richardson was buried in Fredericksburgh on 4 Aug 1789 because I was unable to determine which Asa was involved. Your letter clarifies it. Actually, it is hardly probable that this man could have been interested in land-grabbing in Nottawasaga township in 1834. It now appears that Asa Richardson "The Older" (as of 1834) was the son of Thomas Richardson who was the son of Asa Sr. He was probably called "The Older" to distinguish him from younger cousins. This Asa may have acquired the land in Nottawasaga, but does not appear to have removed there. My grandfather, William Henry Richardson is said to have bought the land from his brother-in-law named Christie who lived in Nottawa in 1878.
2. The name "Thamar" (with or without the "H") is almost as common as "Asa" amongst the Richardsons. Tamar Richardson was indeed buried 26 May, 1797. Here again, my problem has been to determine which "Thamar". In a petition for land dated 4 Oct, 1797, "Thamar Richardson, wife of Asa Richardson and daughter of Samuel Browenson " prays for 200 acres. Thus, it appears that her husband "Asa" was the son of Asa, Sr., rather than Asa, Sr. himself.
3. I had omitted James Bradshaw Richardson from my chart because I was unable to find proof of the connection. In this respect, I have found also such names as Jared, Timothy and George Richardson, all listed as "soldiers" in the King's, or Queen's or Loyal Rangers in the 1780s, but am unable to establish any connection between them and my known family.
4. Amos Richardson, in his petition for land dated 8 Sep, 1797 states "..... he is the son of Asa Richardson, a U.E. Loyalist, is now arrived to the age of 21 years.. ... " and prays for 200 acres. He appears to have signed the "memorial" himself! William, Henry and Amos all petitioned for land in 1797. Henry and Amos both stated in that year that they had "now arrived to 21 years". Perhaps they were twins???

*she died
26 May 1797*

As a matter of interest, I have visited the Archives building here in Ottawa many times and have gleaned a great amount of information there. I have also found material in the libraries at the Parliament Building, the Supreme Court and in the Carnegie Public library.

The relationships you have indicated with Katherine Ryan and her two husbands provide another slight surface puzzle. A petition for land was presented to the Executive Council on 9 March, 1803 by "Catherine Richardson, wife of Henry Richardson, daughter of John Percy.....". At the time of her application, John Percy was, of course, Catherine's step-father, rather than her father!! I wish all puzzles in this business were as easily resolved.

The name "Fosyuar" has always repelled me because it doesn't appear to have any of the usual nationalist features. However, Forshee could be a corruption of a French or German name, and is much more plausible. Also, the name Lazier, French, of course, is probably correctly spelled "Lozier", a fairly common French name.

The fact that you have so much information on these matters interests me greatly. I hope some day to visit you and take advantage of your kind invitation to look it over. I am looking forward to meeting you.

Thank you again.

Yours sincerely,

R.D. Richardson.

History of Queensbury, New York State.

p. 408 In 1775 the Names of inferior officers in each district:

Kingsbury: Asa Richardson, Captain.

p. 424-7 About the year 1777, while the revolutionary war was in progress, and the country was swarming with marauding bands of Indians and tories, Daniel Parks' house was attacked at night by a band of tories, who demanded the keys to his desk, which contained his papers, etc., which the old man refused to deliver up. Thereupon one of the band clinched him, at which a scuffle ensued, which resulted in getting the old man down, when one of the party drew up and shot him. He was supposed at that time to be about 75 years of age, and died in defending himself against British aggression.

Among the band was a man by the name of Richardson, (Foot note: All I know of Richardson, I learned from the Parks family. He was ringleader of the tories, who murdered the father of that family. He had some claim or title to the South Glen's Falls water power, and to obtain the Parks title papers is supposed to have been the principal purpose of the expedition. Old Mr. Parks saw through a window Richardson and Ferguson (a tory tavern keeper at the Bend) looking at the Parks papers, went into the house, and was immediately killed by a gun breech blow on the head"--Letter to the author from the late Judge Hay.

In another account of this affair, it is stated that the tory party found rest and refreshment at the house of one Ferguson, a tory at the Bend. He had pretended to be a Whig, had attended their meetings and signed their articles of association, and up to this time was considered a zealous patriot. Sending out scouts in the direction of Lake George, and keeping a watchful outlook on the movements of the Parks family, the party lurked around the vicinity for a week or more, until Ferguson, in the expressive language of my informant, "was eaten out of house and home.") who lived in that vicinity, and who had purchased of the old man a piece of land containing about 100 acres, for which Parks held his obligation, and it is confidentially believed that the murdering wretches were incited to the commission of this act of barbarism by a desire to get possession of Richardson's obligation and thus leave his land free from encumbrance. (etc., not copied).

p. 428 Foot note: Thomas Bradshaw, son of James Bradshaw, was a major in the American service, but for some reason never succeeded in obtaining a pension--Relation of Mrs. Rachel Clary.

I find among the Wing papers the following memorandum, without date:

"The expenses of the men of the guard amount to the sum of two pounds for 6 eating and drinking.

To Capt. Richardson.

Thomas Bradshaw, Sargt.

Mem: Asa Richardson was appointed captain of the company from the Kingsbury district (see ante), 23d Sept., 1755; as this account does not appear to have been paid, of course Mr. Wing was out of pocket that amount.

1. John Brownson (1), believed to have been one of the company who came with Mr. Hocker to Hartford in 1636; was in the bloody Pequot battle of 1637.  2. Jacob (2), born January, 1641. See below.
 3. John (2), born January, 1644.
 4. Isaac (2), born November, 1645.

2. Jacob Brownson (2), son of John Brownson (1) and Mary -----, and resided in Farmington, in Kensington Society Church.
 9. Samuel (3), born in 1685; settled in Milford (New). See below.
 10. Jacob, of Kensington.
 11. Roger (3), born in 1692 (?); settled in New Milford.
 12. Isaac (3), of Lyme.
 13. Elizabeth (3).
 14. Rebecca (3).
9. Samuel Brownson (3), son of Jacob and Mary Brownson, married Lydia -----, probably in Kensington. He settled in New Milford in 1713, and became a prominent man in the State as a member of the Governor's Court. He died Oct. 27, 1733. Lydia, his widow, married Jonathan Luce, of Derby, March 2, 1742. Children:
 15. Lydia (4), born Feb. 23, 1702; married Ezekiel Duck (s.v.).
 16. Thomas (4), born 6 Feb., 1704.
 17. Rebecca (4), born 14 Feb., 1708; married Samuel Hitchcock, Jr.
 18. Jacob (4), born 24 April, 1711.
 19. Margaret (4), born 3 Oct., 1715.
 20. Samuel (4), born 16 July, 1721, (aged 61 or 67 in a list of Feb. 24, 1783, War Office Papers, Public Archives, Ottawa, Ont.)
20. Samuel Brownson (4), Jr., son of Samuel and Lydia Brownson, married Elizabeth ----- (She was a daughter of William and Mary Bradshaw, and born about 1726. According to the Haldimand Papers, Public Archives, Ottawa, Ont., she was 60 years of age in 1781. Gordon Crouse's Memorial to Captain Bradshaw, see Haldimand Papers, states that Samuel was 60 years of age in 1781). Children:
 40. Tamar (5), born 2 Nov., 1749. (She is likely the wife of Asa Richardson, U. E., who settled in Fredericksburgh Township in 1744.)
 41. Anna (5), born 9 Jan., 1752. (She was the wife of Thomas Sherwood, U. E.).
 42. Samuel (5), born 14 July, 1755. (According to a list of 21 Jan., 1783, he was 23 years of age. War Office Papers, Public Archives, Ottawa, Ont.). (This should be 28 years of age.)
 43. Elizabeth (5), born 23 August, 1756. (The Land Books of Ontario contain the application of Oliver Arnold for lands for his wife, a daughter of Samuel Brownson, Senr., dated 12 July, 1798. This is likely Elizabeth.).

In trying to substantiate the bare facts, it is necessary to accept and include family stories passed onto us by our relatives. This has helped to make the work of searching through old books and papers interesting and even exciting. To prove a rumour or a story passed on to us to be true or to have facts dug out of dry records confirmed by older members of the family makes the effort worth while. One of my sisters recalled our Grandfather Tom's comment that his grandfather's name was the same as his. My father, Roy, remembers his father's (Tom) stories about the Griswolds and the McCanns, and that the Griswolds lived in a log house across the road. The 1861 census shows Joshua and his wife Hester (Perry) and seven children, William, Robert, Matilda, Laura, Thomas, Rossanna, and Joshua living in a log house; with Samuel, his brother; Laura McCann, his sister; and Elizabeth Griswold (15 years of age) his niece. One member of the family was marked absent, presumably his son John by his first marriage. Joshua's first wife and John's mother is reported to be of the Pickle family. No records have been found to substantiate this except that there were families of Pickles in Fredricksburg where Joshua was raised before he came to Sidney. On the same page and immediately following indicating probably that it would be the next house down the road the census shows the Griswold family of Truman and Susan and their nine children. The great-great grandchildren of Joshua, who part of the summer at Richardson Point, pick up shards of pottery, glass and iron from the spot the house stood.

The 1861 census also reports "No taverns in this section. No churches in this district. School house on Lot 18 in the 8th Cons. built of wood will limit 50 children -- value $300" It has been estimated that over 50 Richardson children have received their basic education at the River Valley School.

The River Valley Cemetery, beside the school, is the resting place of Samuel Richardson; Joshua Richardson and his wife, Esther Perry, and seven of their descendants or wives.

While a good many house of cottage lots have been sold from Lots 11, 12 and 13, the descendants of Joshua still live on and in some cases farm the land. It can be also noted that an increasing number who have gone away are returning to be part of River Valley if only for part of the year.

The task of reducing facts, stories, information, etc., to a family history, true, honest, interesting and complete, is a challenge that may beat us yet. What little we have been able to outline for you here is like a iceberg, only about one tenth is out where it can be seen. The rest is still hidden, yet to be spelled out, to be substantiated, to be proven.

We are looking forward to further opportunities this summer to talk to anyone interested in what we are trying to do. We hope our first effort in trying to draft our Richardson Family History meets your approval.

Richardsons of River Valley

In the River Valley area on the Trent River between Frankford and Stirling in Sidney Township of Hastings County descendants of Asa Richardson who came to Canada in 1780 still live on and farm land settled by/ancestors.

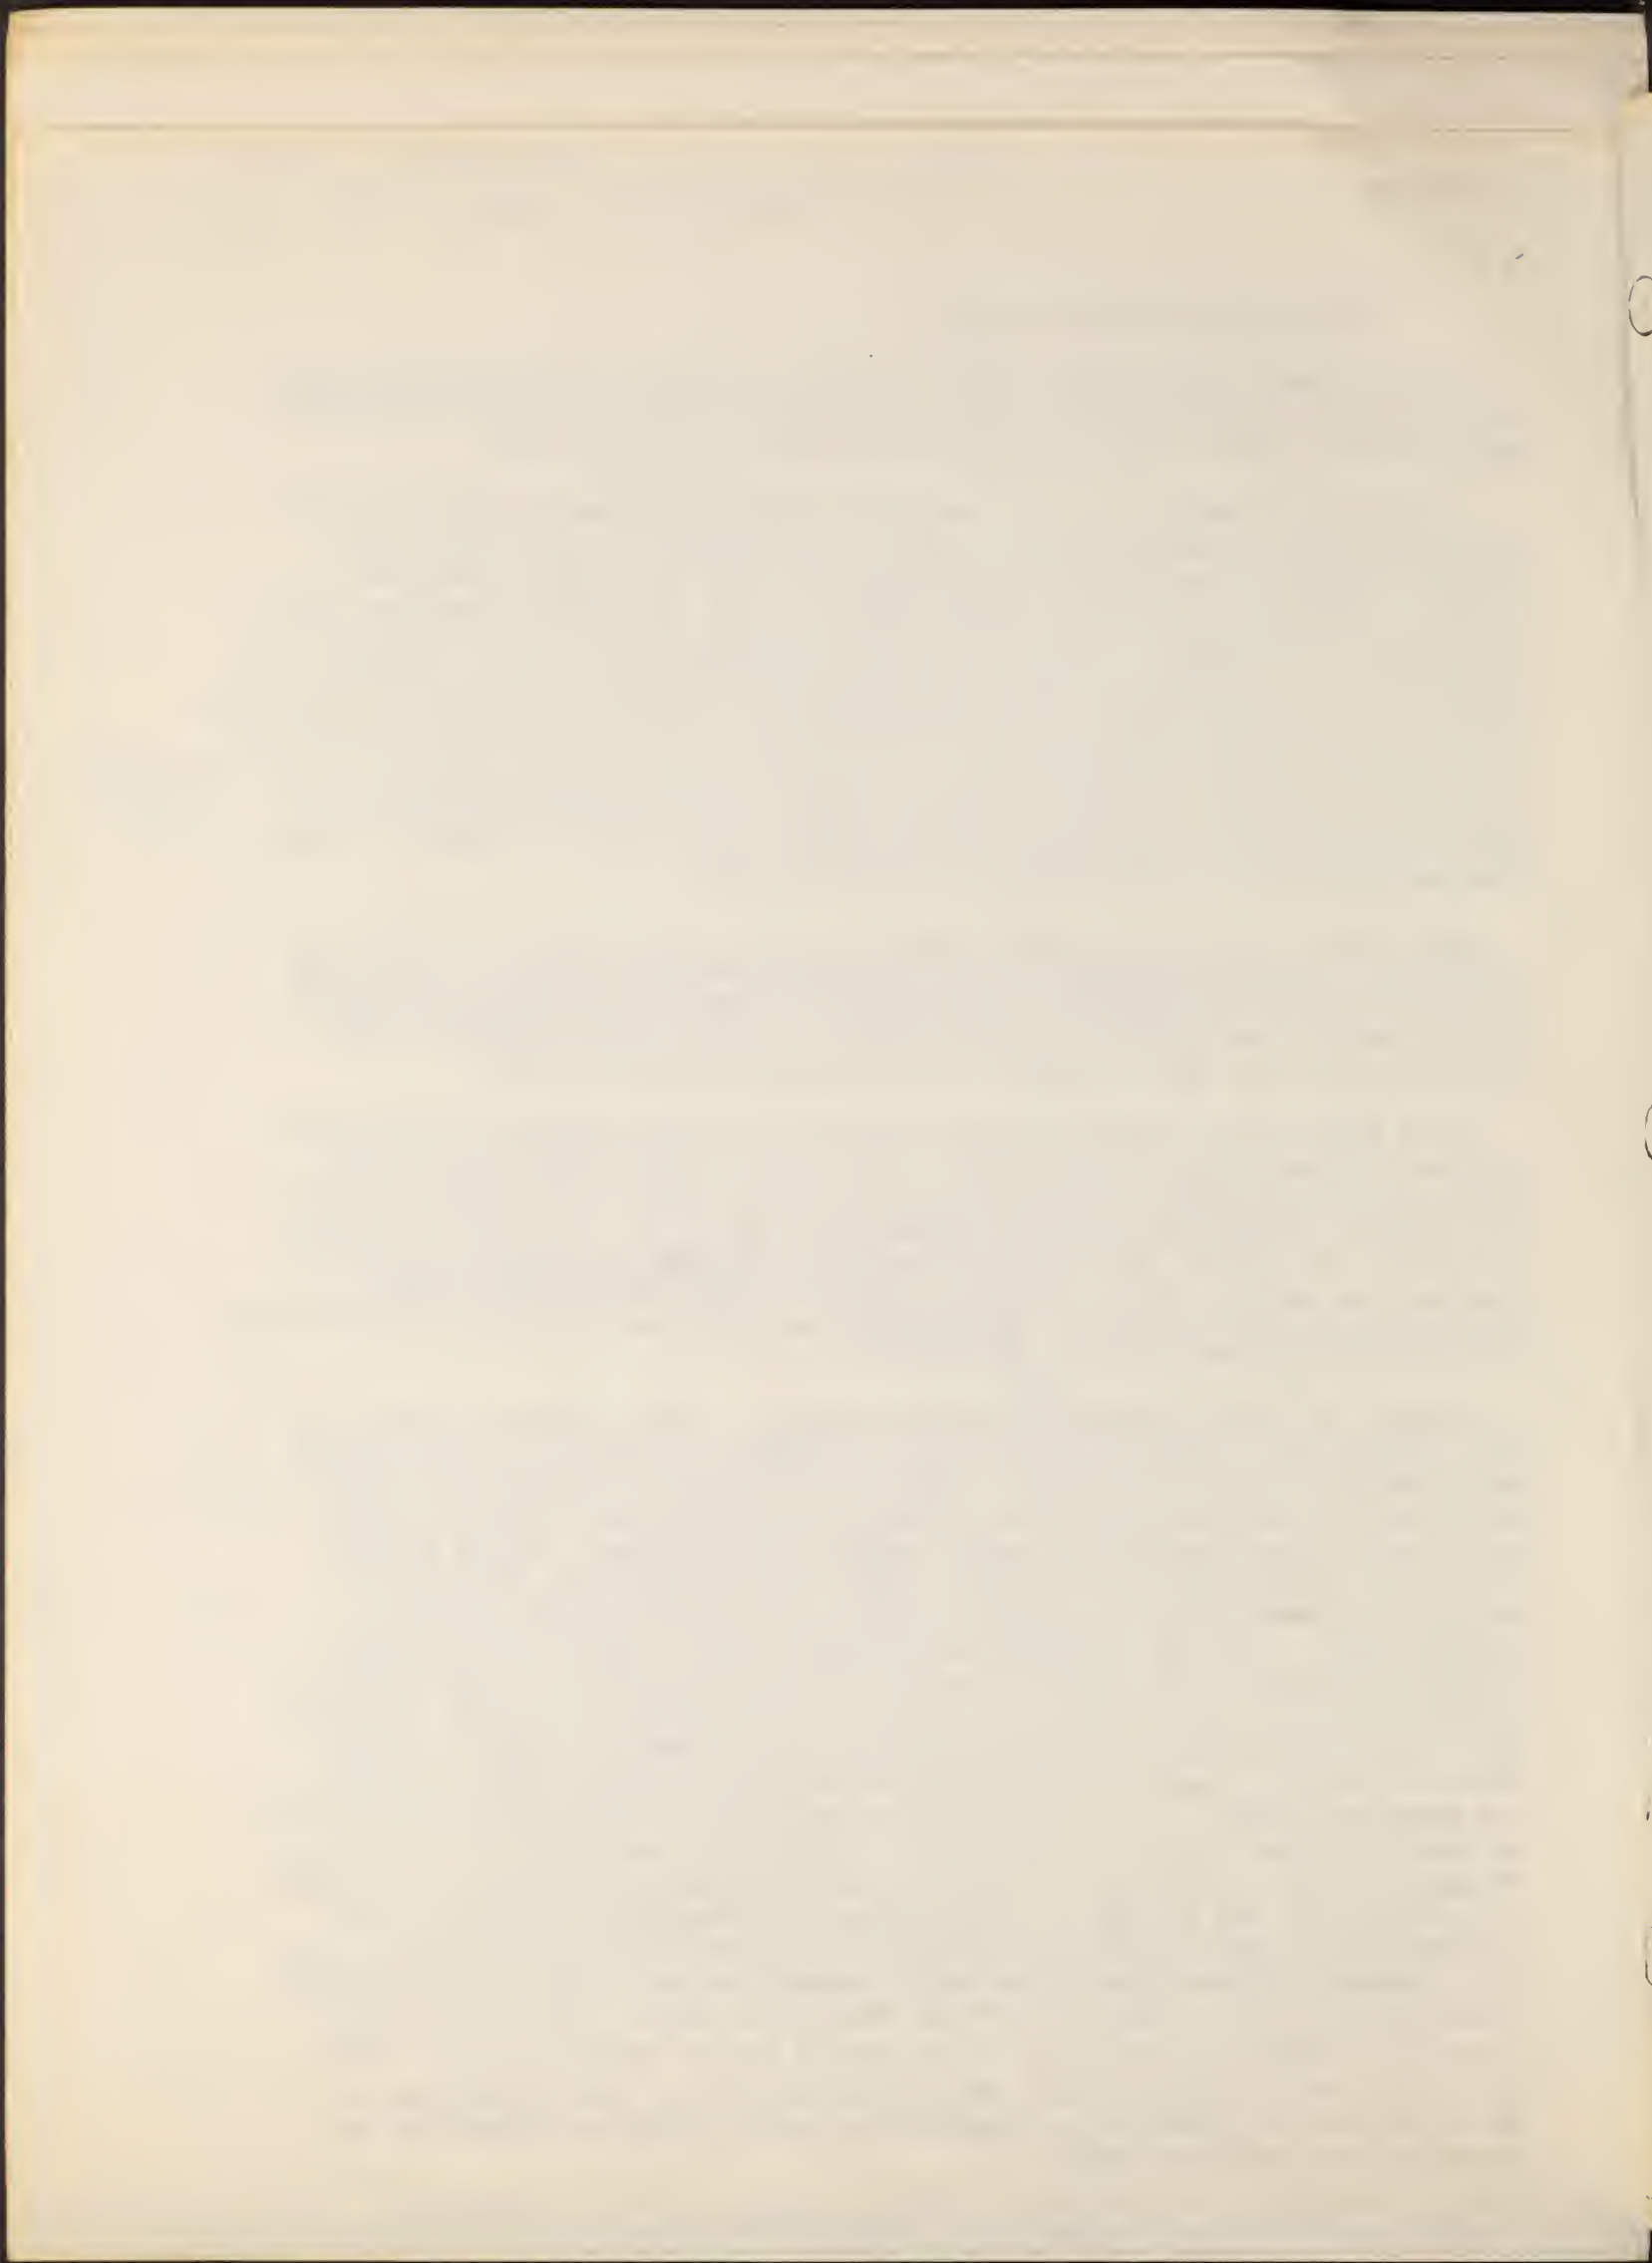

their

In Asa Richardson's statement for losses suffered in the Rebellion of the American States he said he was a native of America had owned 21 acres of land in Kingsboro, Charlotte County, New York State, where he lived, and a house and 15 acres of land in Wood Creek. He was with General Burgoyne, but he became ill and did not serve. He came to Canada in 1780 and was incorporated into Col. Jessop's Regiment until discharged. He wintered in Sorel, Quebec, in 1783-4. In 1784 he claimed rations for himself and his wife and for seven children. His three eldest sons, Thomas, William and Henry, were listed, along with their father, in the United Empire Lists, and were entitled to grants of land free of any fees according to the commitments made to settlers to Upper Canada, who had chosen to continue to live under British rule and who had been forced to flee from the oppression of the rebels for their beliefs. - See (5) SEE (1)

The records show that the adult members of the Asa Richardson family were assigned land in Fredricksburg, the 3rd township west of Kingston. After the earliest settlers had received their land additional townships were surveyed to the west and north. Sidney was the eighth of the eleven townships first surveyed around the Bay of Quinte and rivers flowing into the Bay.

Asa's oldest son, Thomas, married twice and had eleven children, baptised between 1796 and 1823. One child died as a baby. Asa, Thomas' eldest son, stayed in Fredricksburg, probably on the home farm. All the children received land grants by Orders in Council between 1834 and 1840. John; Rachel; Samuel; and Laura, who married John McCann; received locations in Marmora. Joshua; Lizette, who married James Williams; Susan, who married Truman Griswold; received locations in Sidney. Lucinda, married a man called German of Belleville, and Mary married John Louis of Sophiasburg.

Samuel, Joshua's older (half) brother, received a land grant in Marmora in 1837. Joshua was granted land in Sidney in 1839. It has not yet become known where their grants were located. Many grants were not taken up or if they were, were not registered for many years. Many grants were not registered and deeds obtained until death of the settler was imminent, simply because there was no necessity to go to the trouble and the expense. The earliest reference to a definite location was found in the Land Patent Office at Queen's Park. The Book of Clergy Reserves Land Roll, Book 3, shows Samuel Richardson occupying 11 cleared acres on Lot 13, Cons. 7, of Sidney Township in 1844. It also showed this land granted to John Smith on May 27, 1801. As the land records in the Belleville Registry Office shows no record of John Smith on Lot 13, it must be presumed that the sale from the Clergy Reserve was never completed. No land was ever registered to Samuel in Sidney, altho he lived in River Valley until his death in 1875 and was buried in the River Valley Cemetery. He never married and the 1861 census indicates that he lived with Joshua and his family. It would appear that Joshua was living on and farming Lot 12, while Samuel was living with Joshua and farming Lot 13. In 1851, Joshua purchased from Adam Henry Meyers 50 acres of Lot 11 and in 1855 purchased 100 acres of Lot 11 from the Wallbridge estate and sold 20 acres across the river to Hiram Bell. A few months before Samuel's death in 1875, Lot 13 was registered to Joshua from the Crown for the sum of $400 and at the same time the purchase was completed of Lot 12 from the University and Colleges for the sum of $1000.

June 23 1966,

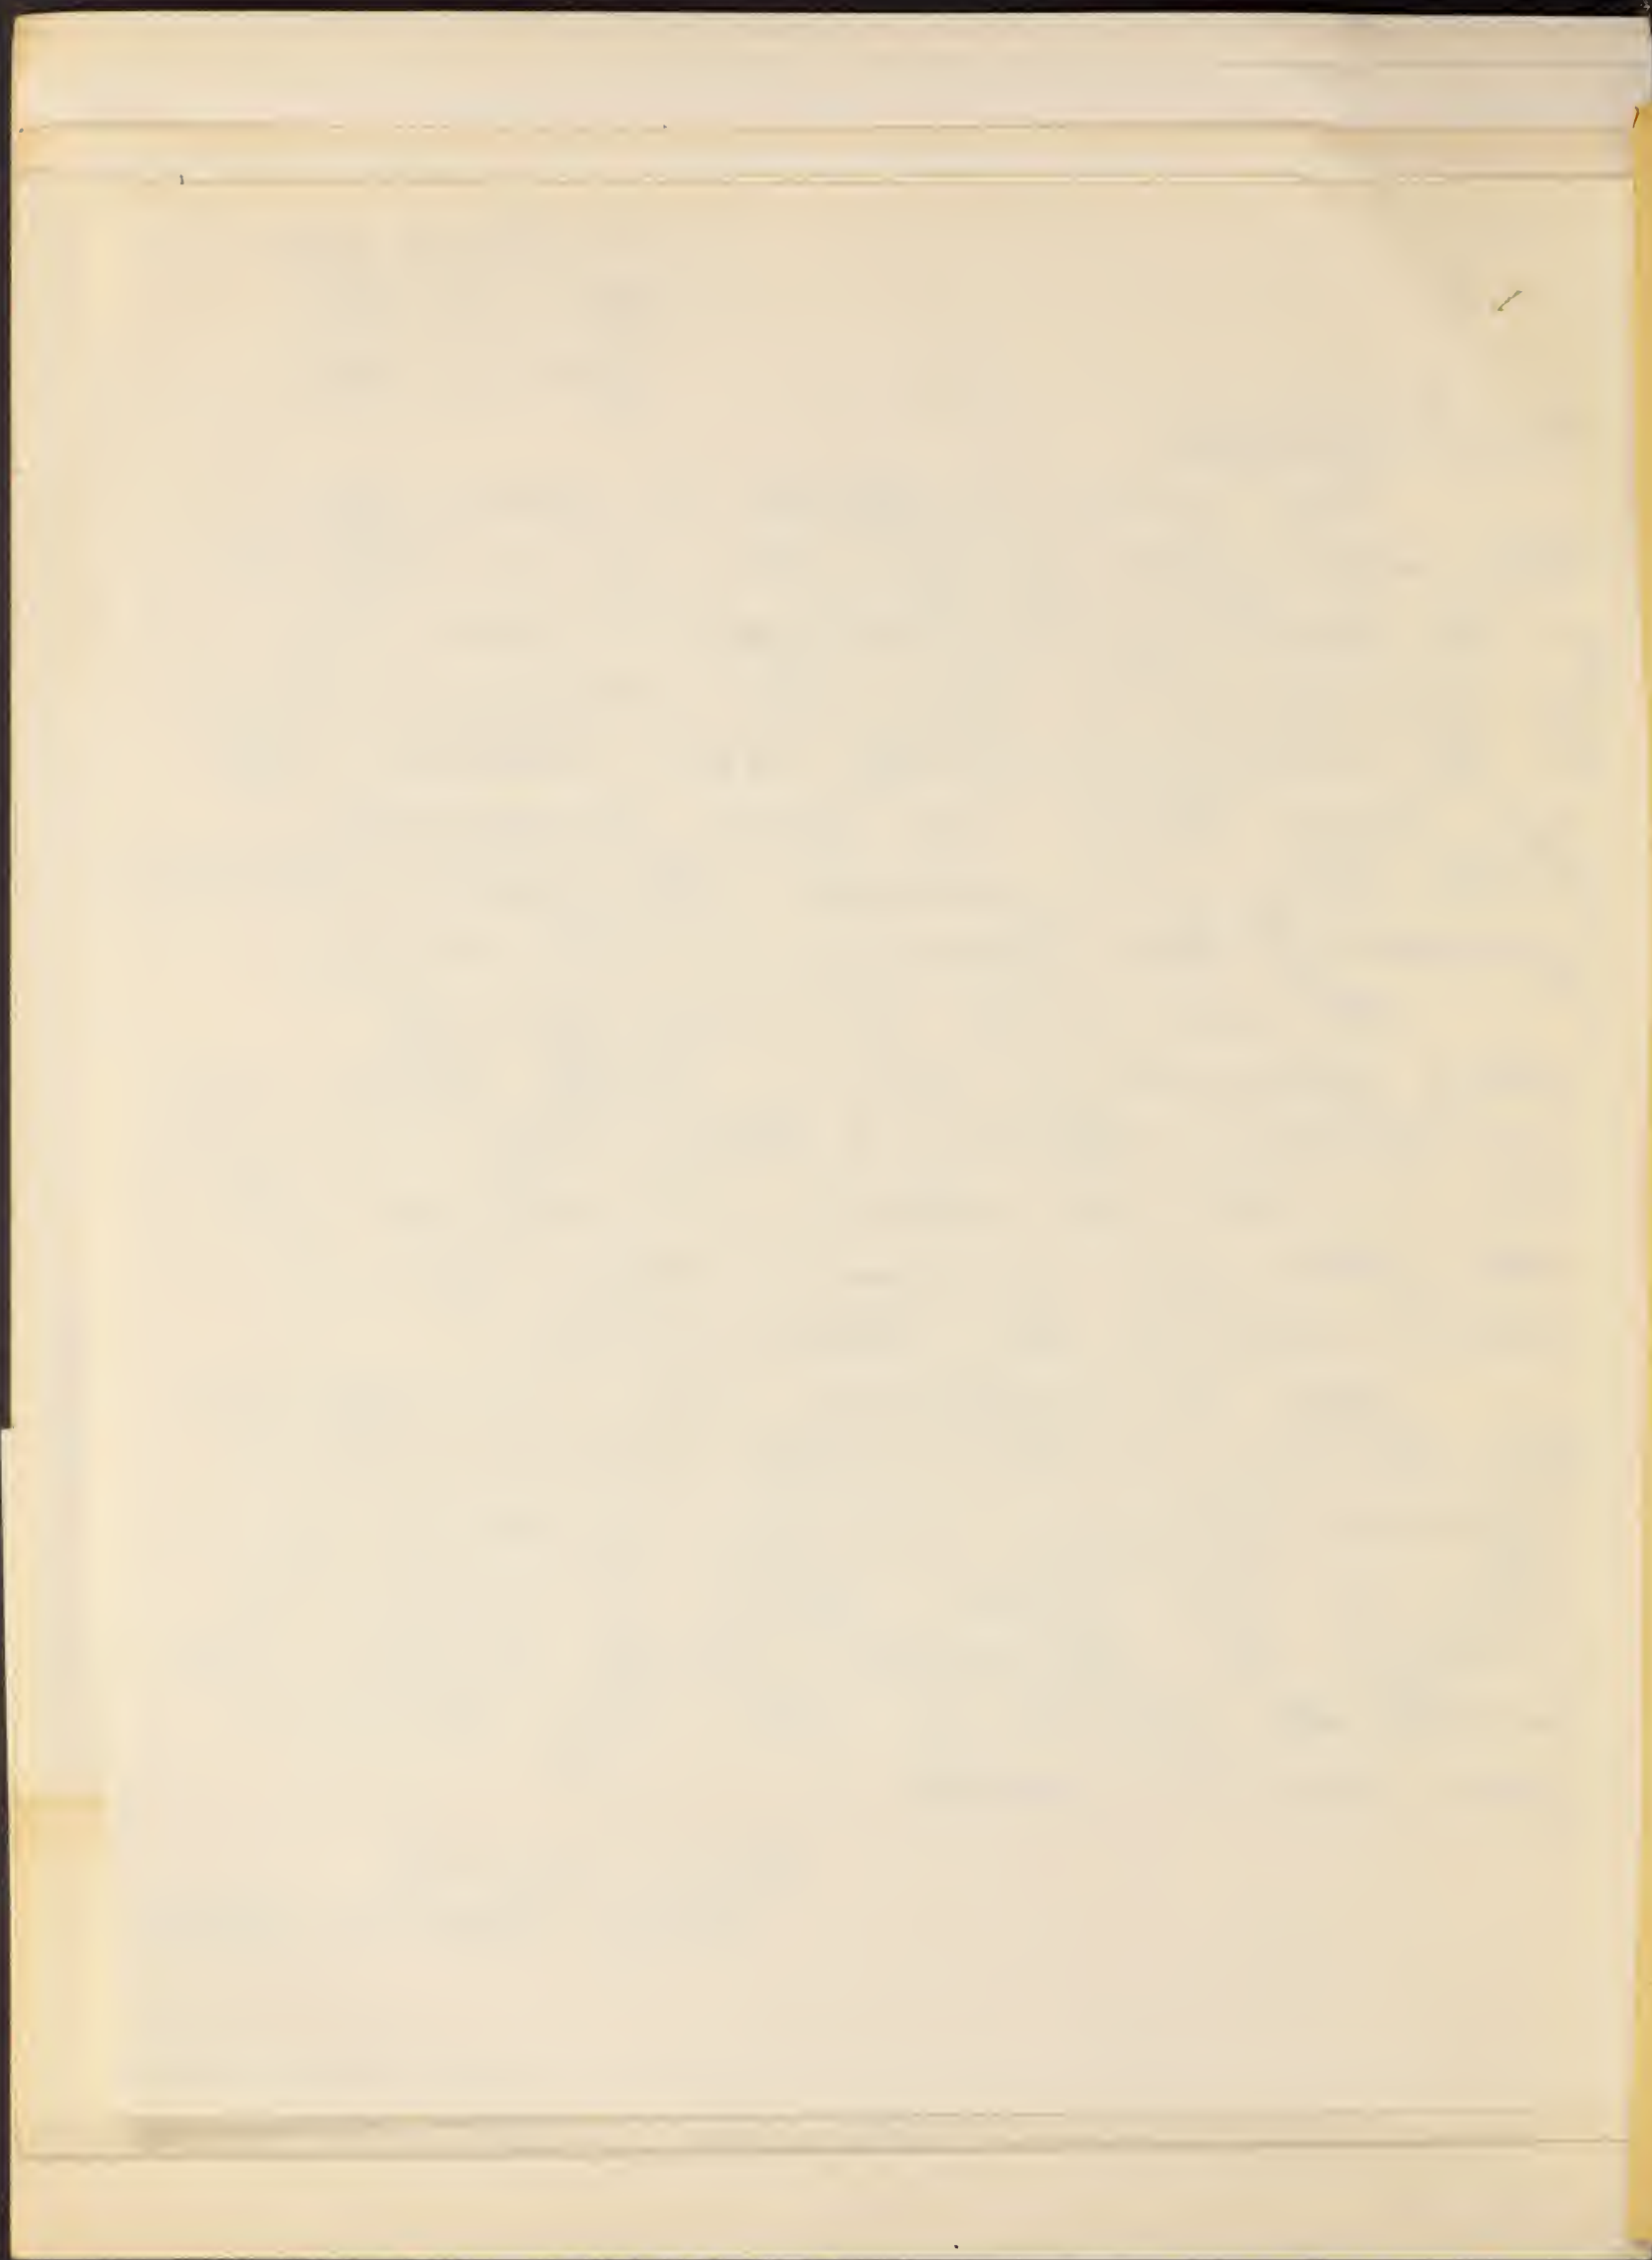

Dear Mr. Burleigh;

We were so pleased to receive your letter and to find someone else who is interested in the branches of the families we are researching. My husband and I have been working primarily on the Richardson family and intended to try and trace back my great-grandmother Esther Perry who married (1847) Joshua Richardson, grandson of Asa Richardson of Fredericksburg.

We had noted the marriages of Henry Richardson to Catherine Costlon (1801) and James Bradshaw Richardson to Rebecca Perry (1804) from Vol. I O.H.S. Papers & Records, but did not know that these girls were sisters. Was this a second marriage for Catherine Costlon?

We are continuing our research at the Archives at Queen's Park and the Toronto Reference Library. I have enclosed a copy of our first effort to reduce to writing the Richardson family history and would be pleased to have any comments you care to make.

Yours sincerely,
(Audrey Richardson) Kirk.

RICHARDSON FAMILY.

The first authentic knowledge of Asa Richardson, the Loyalist, is found in the history of Kingsbury Town, now in Washington County, New York. Here is listed as having been a captain of colonial militia. His petition, which you have, indicates that he was ill in 1777, when General Burgoyne passed through Kingsbury on his way to surrender at Saratoga.

An item found in the Albany County Committee for Detecting and Defeating Conspiracies deals with Richardson. I quote:

July 21, 1779.

Asa Richardson having some Time ago by Order of this Board been confined in Coal for Disaffection to the American Cause was brought before the Board & we Jud(g)ing that his Confinement has been sufficiently long do therefore Order that he be liberated from Confinement on his entering into a Recognizance for his future good Behaviour & Appearance before any one of the Commissioners of Conspiracies whenever called upon in two years from this Day.

Asa Richardson in Recognizance	in	£ 100.
Samuel Sherwood his Bail	in	£ 100.

This shows that Asa had been imprisoned by the Rebels, and that when he was liberated he had to post a bond and supply a bailsmān who, in this instance, was Sherwood who appears to have been his brother-in-law.

Shortly thereafter Asa escaped to Canada. Having been a militia captain, he was put on the pension list, and received £ 5, whether quarterly or annually is not clear to me at this point. In October, 1780, he was at St. Johns, N. C., without his family, and noted as 'an old man.'

His family is shown to have arrived at St. Johns by March, 1781. A provision list of the period 25 March to 24 April reveals the following:

	self	wife	sons	£ 6	sons	- six	daus.	£ 6	daus	- 6
Asa Richardson	1	1	3	1	1	1	1	1	1	distressed.

The family remained as above through 1782 and 1783. A muster roll of settlers in Fredericksburgh on 6 Oct., 1783, is as follows:

	self	wife	sons	£ 10	sons	- 10	daus.	£ 10	daus	- 10
Asa Richardson	1	1	3	2	1	1	1	1	1	at St. Johns

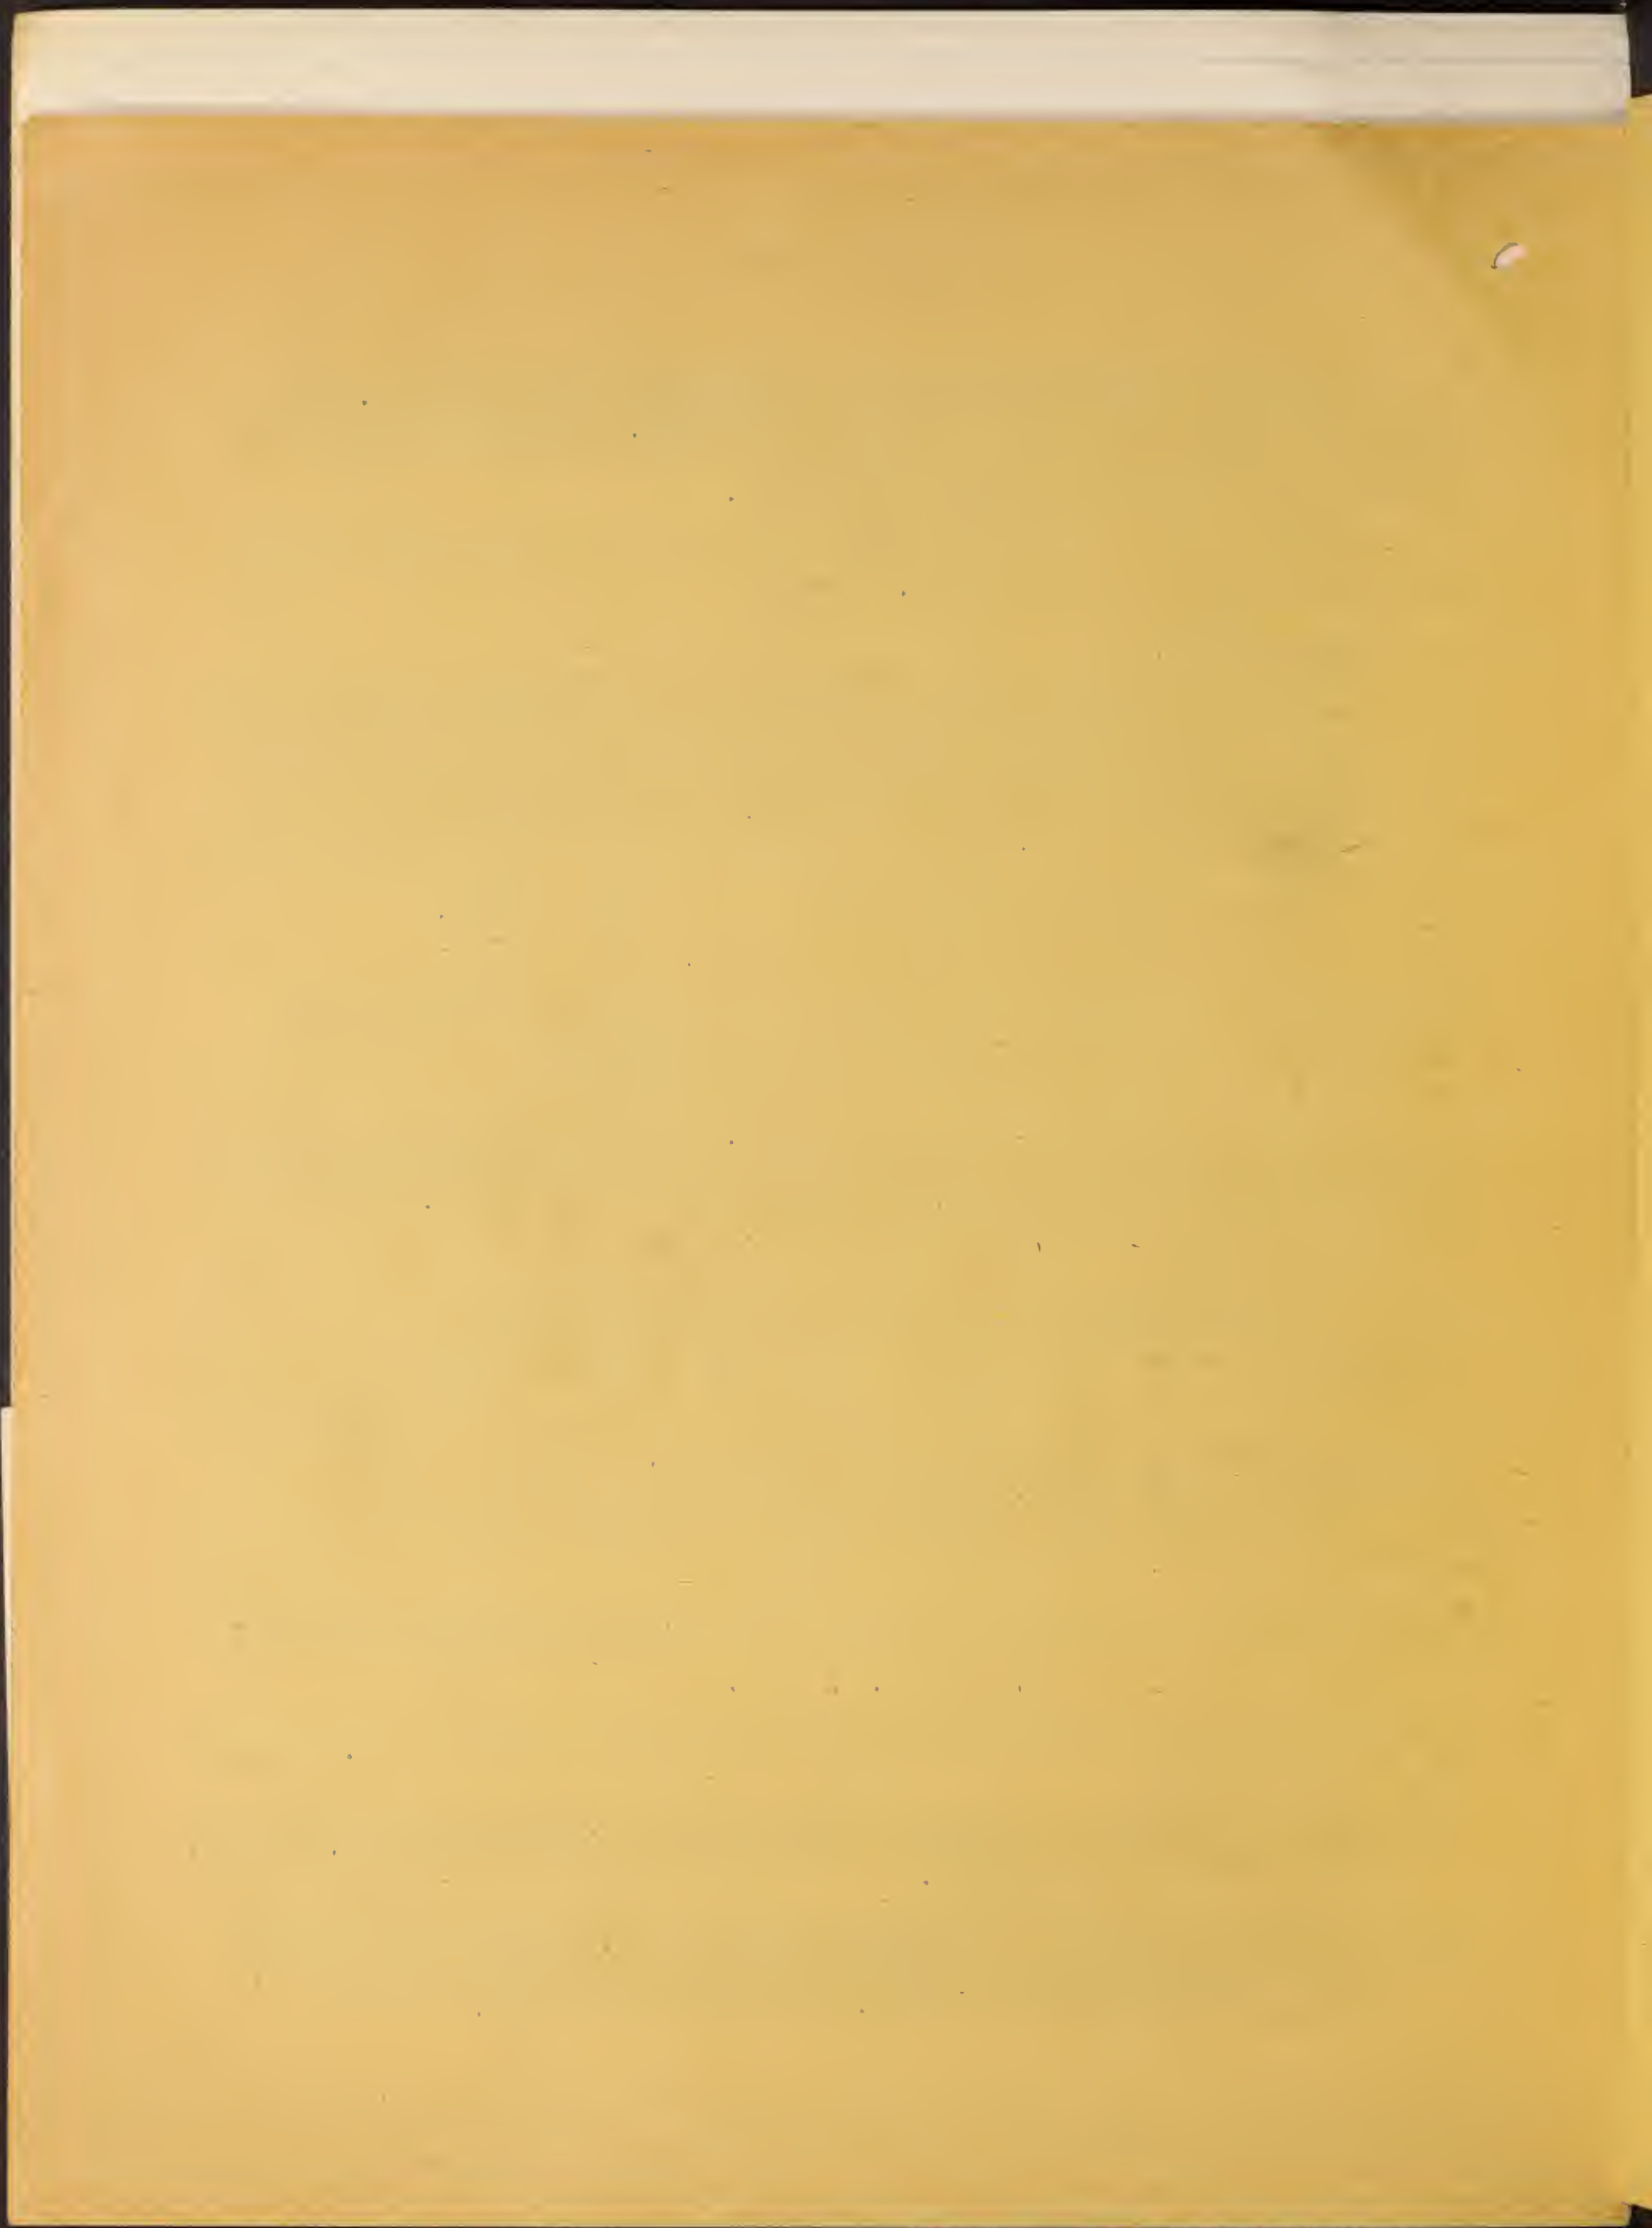

In other words, this family did not come up the St. Lawrence until after 1781.

A review of a Richardson Genealogy in the State Library, Albany, N. Y., discovers these possibilities:

Asa 5 (William 4, Josiah 3, Josiah 2, Ezekiel 1), born in Pelham, N. H., 23 Feb., 1738; probably never married.

Asa, born about 1726, lived at Lancaster (likely N. H.); joined in a petition dated 31 Dec., 1716, with 60 others of Lancaster, 83 of Lunenburg, etc., to be protected from the Indians. Asa died early in life.

James Bradshaw, married, 24 April, 1844. Known children:
Kathleen, bapt. 27 Feb., 1805.

Asa.
Michael.

(There were two Michaels, sons of Henry J. Jones, and grandsons of Katharine Ryan. One was 'Lighting Mike' and the other was 'Opinion
Mike'. The former was a rebel in 1837-38, and was transported to
Van Diemen's Land. The latter was a yeoman in Garden Township.
Both were first cousins of my grandfather, Joseph Lott Percy.)

1. Thomas, married before 1796, as was his wife, and they had children (known):
Asa, bapt. 10 Feb., 1796. Later was a yeoman in Garden Township.
Joriel, bapt. 12 Dec., 1797. (My grandfather, Joseph Lott Percy.)
6. Elizabeth, as she the wife of Bel Gold, and mother of
Anna, born 31 May, 1802.
2. William, married, 10 April, 1801, Emily Schermerhorn. Known children:
Elizabeth, bapt. 4 Feb., 1801.
7. Charlotte, married 11 Feb., 1797, Thomas Howard, of Wierst Island.
Margaret, bapt. 10 June, 1805.

There seems to be an error somewhere. If this is the William who was on secret service, then he did not die.

3. Henry, married, 18 March, 1801, Catharine Costello (Correct spelling was Costello. She a daughter of James Costello, who died in Port-real in 1792-3, and his wife, Katharine Ryan. The latter married, in 1794, John Percy. Their daughter, Rebecca Percy, married James Bradshaw Richardson). Known children:

Tamar, bapt. 18 Jan., 1804. Anna, born 31 May, 1802.

Kathleen, " 26 Feb., 1806.

Asa

Michael.

4. Amos, married, 9 March, 1802, Susannah Sager.
5. James Bradshaw, married, 24 April, 1804. Known children:
Kathleen, bapt. 27 Feb., 1805.

Asa.

Michael.

(There were two Michaels, sons of Henry J. Jones, and grandsons of Katharine Ryan. One was 'Lighting Mike' and the other was 'Opinion
Mike'. The former was a rebel in 1837-38, and was transported to
Van Diemen's Land. The latter was a yeoman in Garden Township.
Both were first cousins of my grandfather, Joseph Lott Percy.)

6. Elizabeth, as she the wife of Bel Gold, and mother of
Anna, born 31 May, 1802.
Thomas, " 23 March, 1812.
7. Charlotte, married 11 Feb., 1797, Thomas Howard, of Wierst Island.

Thomas Richardson married, secondly, Laurel Dibble, and had two children baptized in the Lutheran Church, Fredericksburgh, namely, Rachel, born 18 Sept., 1811.
Laurel, date of birth not given.

The Rev. John Langhorn, Anglican Missionary to Ernesttown and Fredericksburgh, lists the following burials in Fredericksburgh:

Asa Richardson, buried 4 Aug., 1789.

Tamar Richardson, " 26 May, 1797.

It seems quite natural to suppose that they are man and wife and parents of the several children listed above. I continue to do so, even though Tamar Richardson, daughter of Samuel Brownson, Sr., was granted 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 4 Oct., 1797, four months after she had been buried. The solution very likely is that she applied for this land prior to her death. This can be proven, provided you apply to the Public Archives, Ottawa, Ontario, for exact copy of her application. This will furnish the date of her application.

Kingsbury Town, Albany County.

The 'Memorial To Captain Bradshaw,' a copy of which you should be able to find in Toronto Public Library, compiled by Manley Ostrander and Charles G. Crouse, supplies some details of the history of this Town. I suggest that you review this booklet.

William Bradshaw, with wife and family, emigrated from Ireland to the American Colonies about 1722-30, and settled in New Milford, Conn. His son, James Bradshaw, in 1762, bought land in the Kingsbury Patent, as did other residents of New Milford, such as Brownson, Bible, etc.

The Brownson, mentioned above, was Samuel, Sr., had married Elizabeth, a sister to James, above, and daughter to William Bradshaw, the emigrant. It would, therefore, be possible that Asa Richardson, Sr., was son-in-law of Samuel Brownson, Sr., and grandson-in-law of William Bradshaw.

There is, as yet, a completely ~~unsolved~~ unsolved problem. It is known that Anna, daughter of Samuel Brownson, Sr., born 9 Jan., 1752, married Thomas Sherwood, likely brother of the Samuel Sherwood, the bail for Asa Richardson in 1779. Tamer, an older sister of Anna, was born 2 Nov., 1749. Was she the wife of Asa Richardson?

The records of New Milford, Conn., are most interesting (what I have seen of them) and require a careful sifting to establish Richardson-Brownson origins.

Dear Mrs Kirk:

Permit something to keep you busy for a time. I hope that you find it interesting.

I cannot help you with the Perry connection at the moment. I have mislaid my Perry file. I will say that there is an unattached letter of suitable age to fit your chart.

I made an error when I said that I had never communicated with any descendant of Asa Richardson. What I really meant that, as Genealogist of the Bay of Quinte Branch, U. E. L. Association, I had never received an application from a Richardson descendant.

I had two letters from this man, a descendant of Asa & Susanah Sager. He was in 1963.

HIS Lordship intimated to the Council that it remained a Question, upon the late Regulation for the Disposition of the Waste Lands of the Crown, whether the Boards, constituted for that Purpose were authorised to make Locations to the Sons of Loyalists, on their coming to full Age and that it was his wish to put a Mark of Honor upon the families who had adhered to the Unity of the Empire, and joined the Royal Standard in America before the Treaty of Separation in the year 1783.

The Council concurring with his Lordship it is accordingly ORDERED,

EXTRACT from the Rules and Regulations for the Conduct of the Land Office Department, dated Council Chamber, 17th. February, 1789.

IV. THE safety and propriety of admitting the Petitioner to become an inhabitant of this Province being well ascertained to the satisfaction of the Board, they shall administer to every such person the oaths of Fidelity and allegiance directed by Law. After which the Board shall give every such Petitioner a certificate to the Surveyor-general, or any person authorised to act as an Agent or Deputy Surveyor for the District within the trust of that Board, expressing the ground of the Petitioner's admission. And such Agent or Deputy Surveyor shall within two days after the presentment of the certificate, assign the Petitioner a single lot of about two hundred acres, describing the same with due certainty and accuracy under his signature. But the said certificate shall nevertheless have no effect, if the Petitioner shall not enter upon the location and begin the improvement and cultivation thereof within one year from the date of such assignment, or if the Petitioner shall have had lands assigned to him before that time, in any other part of the Province.

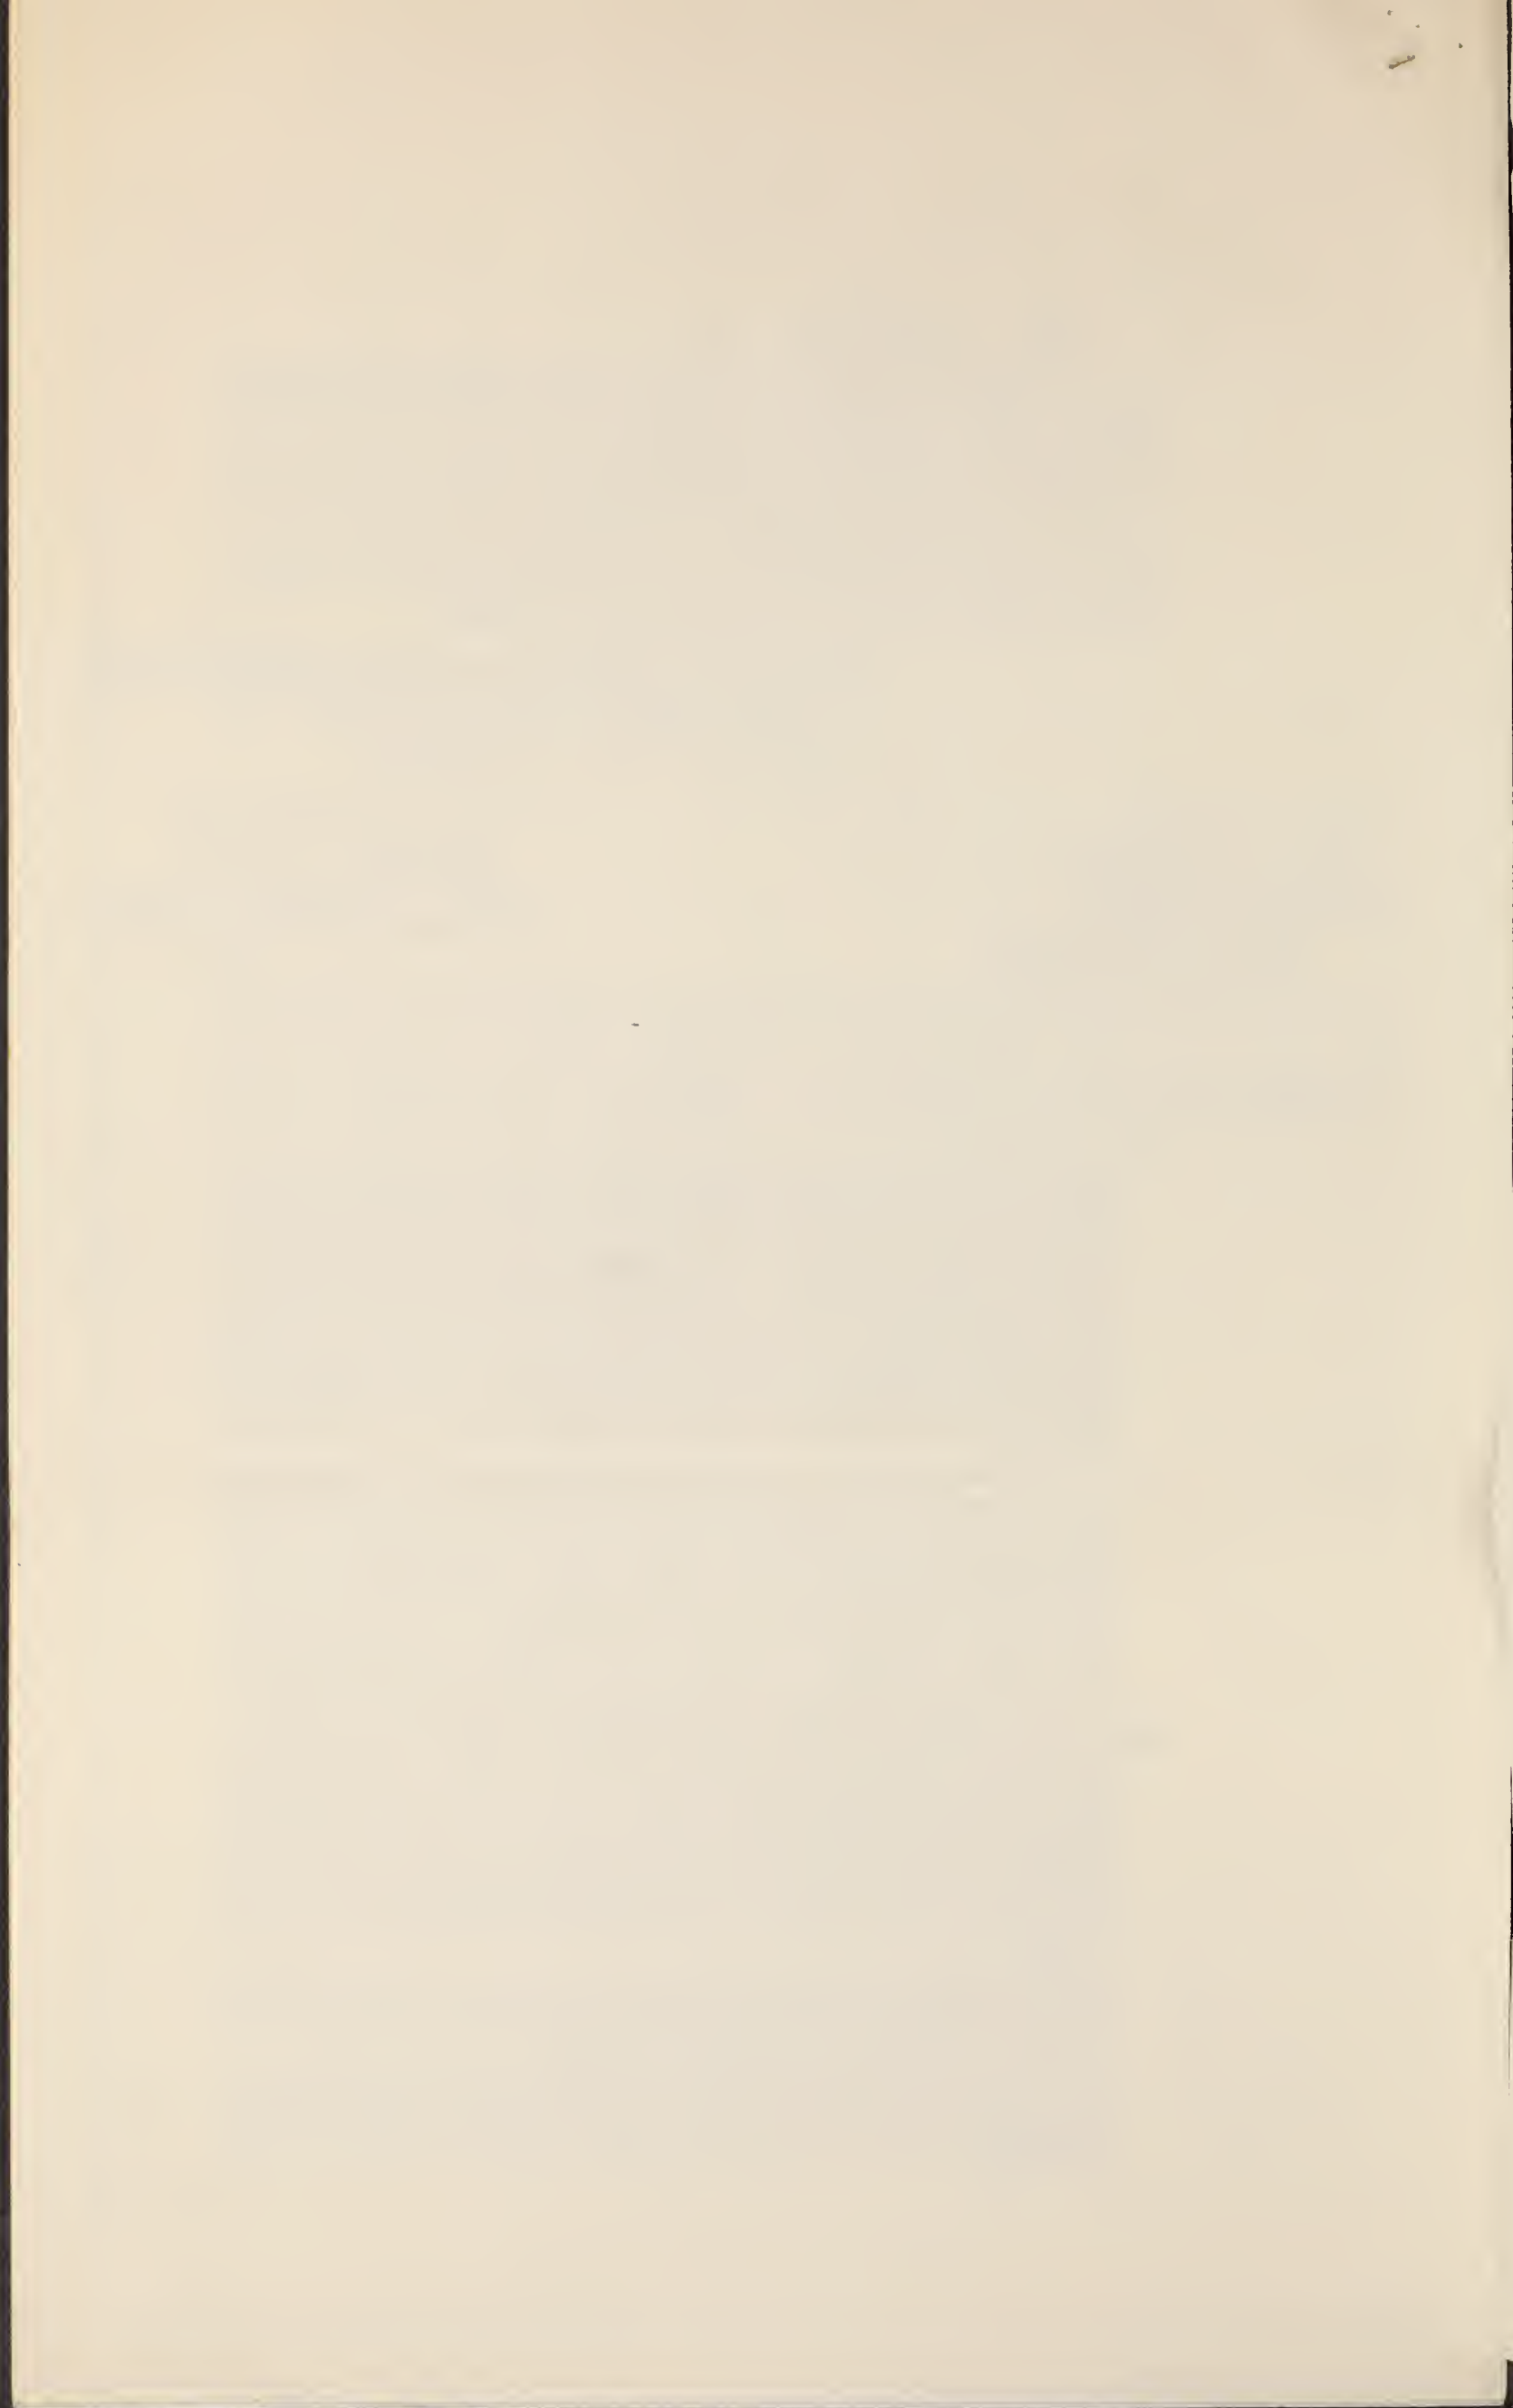

VII. The respective Boards shall, on Petitions from Loyalists already settled in the upper District for further allotments of land under the instructions to the Deputy Surveyor-general, of the 2d. of June, 1787, or under prior or other orders for assigning portions to their families, examine into the grounds of such requests and claims, and being well satisfied of the justice thereof, they shall grant certificates for such further quantities of land, as the said instructions and orders may warrant, to the Acting Surveyors of their districts respectively to be by them made effectual in the manner beforementioned; but to be void nevertheless, if, prior to the passing the grant in form, it shall appear to the Government that such additional locations have been obtained by fraud—And that of these, the boards transmit to the Office of the Governor's Secretary, and to each other like reports and lists as herein before, as to other locations, directed.

VIII. And to prevent individuals from monopolizing such spots as contain mines, minerals, fossils, and conveniences for mills and other singular advantages of a common and public nature, to the prejudice of the general interest of the settlers, the Surveyor-general and his Agents or Deputy Surveyors in the different districts, shall confine themselves in the locations to be made by them upon certificates of the respective Boards, to such lands only as are fit for the common purposes of husbandry and they shall reserve all other spots aforementioned, together with all such as may be fit and useful for ports and harbours, or works of defence, or such as contain valuable timber for ship-building or other purposes, conveniently situated for water-carriage, in the hands of the Crown.

And they shall without delay give full and particular information to the Governor and Commander in Chief for the time being, of all such spots as are herein before directed to be reserved to the Crown, that order may be taken respecting the same.

And the more effectually to prevent abuses, and to put individuals on their guard in this respect, any certificate of location given contrary to the true intent and meaning of this regulation is hereby declared to be null and void, and a special order of the Governor and Council made necessary to pledge the faith of Government for granting of any such spots as are directed to be reserved.

Dear Mr. Howell:

I am most interested in your enquiry on the HOWELL ancestry because of the connection indicated with the RICHARDSON family, which is my U.E. Loyalist family.

Asa Richardson, father of Margaret Richardson, would be one of 2 or 3 grandsons of Asa Richardson, U.E., whose sons were Thomas, William, James, Henry, and Amos?
I am a descendant of Thomas Richardson. His son Asa, ^{born} 10 Feb. 1796, md. Hannah Bowen 17 Aug. 1817. He was 65 years old on the 1861 Census and his wife Hannah was 63. Enclosed are only a few research notes regarding the Howell and Richardson families. I have written a descendant of Major John Howell requesting more information.

I have enclosed a Request For Membership
Application Form for your use. Dr. H.C. Burleigh,
Box 9, Bath, Ontario, Genealogist for the Bay of Quinte Branch of The United Empire Loyalists' Association of Canada has been informed of your enquiry. You may wish to contact him about membership in the Branch or you may wish to join the Toronto Branch. We would be most pleased if you made application to any Branch of your choice.

If I can be of further assistance please write.

Loyally yours,

Audrey L. Kirk, U.E.

Notes taken in 1966 when we visited Mr. Arthur Dean, Con. 5, N. Fred.
Mr. Dean's first wife was Eva Richardson, daughter of George (see over)
George had a brother Michael who was killed in a saw mill accident (he was cut in two) His widow remarried.... Bailey? She was expecting another child when Mike was killed.

James E, settled on High Shore

Margarite married.... Howell-- large family, Trenton I think?

Thomas or John, S. Side of West Lake, Prince Edward Co. North of Picton.

Ruebin, been dead about 30 years, Grist Mill, wife was a Carter?

son, Bert, daughter, Ethel ?

Benjamin took over family farm--- Black Smith Roblin??

From the Stirling News Argus, (Weekly Paper) February 25, 1897

Glen Ross: "Miss Armenta Richardson has gone to Consecon on a visit to friends there. She will be absent some time."

Carmel United Church 75th Anniversary 1875 to 1950. (near Glen Ross)
Rawdon Township

Who's Who-

" Armstrong, Armenta, Widow of the late Clement Henry Armstrong, Born Deseronto, March 14, 1873, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Richardson."

I believe that Asa Richardson (see over) could be a son of Henry,
James or William/ Richardson. and a grandson of Asa Richardson, U.E.

Over Their Dead Bodies ...Yankee Epitaphs & History ...

Thomas C. Mann and Janet Greene -- The Stephen Greene Press

Brattleboro, Vermont. 1962

A number of early residents of what is now Vernon, Vt., owe their continuing fame to epitaphs composed by the Rev. Bunker Gay, chronicler on stone for most of the Tutes, the Strattons and the Bridgemans

Gay's tribute to the real-life heroine, nee Sartwell, of Not Without Peril, a novel of Indian captivity:

Mrs. Jemima Tute

Successively Relict of Messers.

William Phipps, Caleb Howe & Amos Tute

The two first ~~were~~ killed by the Indians

Phipps July 5th AD 1743

Howe June 27th 1755

When Howe was killed She & her Children

Then seven in number

Were carried into Captivity

The oldest a Daughter went to France

And was married to a french Gentleman

The youngest was torn from her Breast

And perished with Hunger

By the aid of some benevolent Gent'n

And her own personal Heroism

She recovered the Rest

She had two by her last Husband

Outlived both him & them

And died March 7th 1805 aged 82

Having past thro more vicissitudes

And endured more hardships

Than any of her Cotemporaries.

No more can Savage Foes annoy

Nor aught her widespread Fame Destroy.

Jemima's first husband, William Phipps, has no marked grave, but the crudely lettered slate marker of her second husband is in Hinsdale, N.H.:

1776 To 1815

In Memory of Mr

Caleb How a very

Kind Companion who

Was Killed by the Indea

ns June the 27th

1755 in the 32 year

of his age his Wife Mrs

Jemima How With 7

Children taken Captive

at the Same time

Mr Caleb Howe Killed

was by Indeans 1755

Mr. Tute's elegant marble stone in Vernon, Vt., beside Jemima's:

In Memory of
Mr. Amos Tute
Who died April 17th
1790 in the 60th
Year of his Age.

Were I so Tall to Reach the Pole
Or grasp the Ocean with my Span
Imust be mesuer'd by my Soul
The Mind's the Standard of the Man

1776 TO 1815

Behind his mother's his epitaph like hers composed by the Rev. Mr. Gay, in Vernon, Vt.:

Here lies cut down like unripe fruit
A son of Mr. Amos Tute
And Mrs. Jemima Tute his wife
Called Jonathan of Whose frail life
The days all summ'd (how short the account)
Scarcely to fourteen years amount
Born on the twelvth of May was he
In Seventeen Hundred Sixty Three
To death he fell a helpless prey
April the Five and Twentieth day
In Seventeen Hundred Seventy Seven
Quitting this world we hope for heaven
But tho his spirit's fled on High
His body mould'ring here must lie.
Behold the amazing alteration
Effected by inoculation
The means employed his life to save
Hurried him headlong to the grave!
Full in the bloom of youth he fell
Alas! what human tongue can tell
The Mother's Grief her Anguish show
Or paint the father's heavier woe
Who now no nat'ral offspring has
His ample fortune to possess
To fill his place, stand in his stead
Or bear his name when he is dead
So God ordained. His ways are just
Tho' Empires Crumble into dust
Life and this World mere Bubbles are Set lose to this for Heaven prepare.
